ISSUE No. 41

NOW THAT THE FALKLANDS HAVE BEEN LIBERATED . . .

LET'S FREE BRITAIN FROM INVADERS!

IN ALL THE REJOICING AT THE EVICTION OF THE ARGENTINIAN INVADERS FROM THE FALKLANDS, LET US NOT FORGET THAT THERE IS ANOTHER GROUP OF ISLANDS WHOSE BRITISH POPULATION IS HAVING ITS WAY OF LIFE ENDANGERED BY AN ALIEN INVASION: THE BRITISH ISLES!

It is ironic that the British government should take immediate and entirely appropriate action to protect the way of life of 1,800 British Falklands folk while it and preceding governments have allowed our British homeland to be invaded by MILLIONS of aliens.

While those serving with the Task Force were ordered to fight, kill and, if necessary be killed in order to keep the Falklands British, British patriots who campaign to keep Britain British are threatened with Race Relations Act prosecutions!

Our reference to these contradictions does not constitute an oversimplification. The British government was not merely against the Argentinian military invasion of the Falklands, it was also opposed to Argentinian civilian immigration.

After the Argentinians had successfully invaded the Falklands early last April, and while diplomatic negotiations were being conducted to try and head off a military clash, the Argentinian Junta made the following proposals:

TRICKY PROPOSAL

It would agree to withdrawing its military personnel from the Falklands and to having the islands governed by a joint Argentinian/British and US or UN administration for a period of two years so as to facilitate further negotiations, providing Argentinian people would be allowed to settle in the Falklands during the two year period.

Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher quickly rejected this proposal, pointing out that the Junta clearly intended to flood the Falklands with its nationals and thereby alter its population structure, way of life and political loyalty.

How is it that the Prime Minister can instantly detect the cultural and political dangers inherent in alien immigration to the British community on the Falklands, but argue that the growing number of Afro-Asian aliens in Britain constitute "an enrichment of our way of life"?

BIG BUSINESS

There can only be one explanation for the contradictions in British government policy: the requirements of Big Business.

Despite government coyness on the subject, it is widely believed that there are substantial oil reserves in and around the Falklands. In addition to this, Britain has access to a wedge of Antarctica as a result of its possession of the Falklands, and Antarctica is believed to possess vast reserves of important minerals.

Mrs. Thatcher will no doubt wish to hand over this vast wealth potential to her Big Business friends, just as she has recently handed over Britain's North Sea oil fields.

In the matter of Immigration to Britain in the 1950's and 1960's, Big Business was in need of cheap labour as a method of cutting the wage demands of British working people, so in that case Tory (and Labour) governments deemed alien Immigration a good thing – and passed laws to try and silence those who opposed it.

With Immigrants still pouring into Britain by the scores of thousands each year, and with the high birth-rate of Immigrants already here, the indigenous British population is increasingly facing demands that it changes its way of life to accommodate the aspirations of the aliens.

The British way of life was only rescued in the Falklands by force of arms.

Let us hope that the rescue operation that is urgently necessary in Britain can be achieved without an horrific race war by means of the orderly and humane repatriation of all non-White Immigrants to their lands of ethnic origin.

An enthusiastic crowd greets the QE2 on her return from the Falklands. This and other ships used by the Task Force would draw equally enthusiastic crowds were they to be used to implement a humane repatriation programme.

It's belly-laugh time folks! This is...

JOE'S OUT–"MORE DETERMINED"

JOE PEARCE emerged from Chelmsford prison just after 7.00 a.m. on Wednesday, 12th May and was greeted with a joyous welcome from his mother and father and a crowd of other NF members and supporters who had waited since 6.00 a.m.

Grinning broadly and giving a thumbs-up sign to waiting photographers, Joe told newspaper reporters:

"Sending me to jail for publishing the truth in Bulldog about multi-racialism has not changed my views, nor has it intimidated me. It has made me all the more determined to campaign for the British race and nation."

CAVALCADE

A cavalcade of Union Jack decorated NF cars took Joe to the NF's bookshop in Croydon where a press conference was held.

At this he announced his willingness to stand as the NF candidate for the impending Parliamentary by-election for Mitcham and Morden, proving that his defiant words outside the jail were not hot air.

Before settling down to the by-election campaign, Joe was guest of honour at a number of celebrations.

On Friday, 14th May 200 YNF members attended a "Welcome Home" social. This event netted a £190 profit which was directed to Joe's by-election fund.

The following evening Joe was guest speaker at an NF Dining Club function in London's West End. The celebrations continued until after 4.00 a.m. and raised more than £470 for the by-election.

Joe received 800 birthday cards on his 21st birthday on 12th March, and he understands that "hundreds" of letters sent to him were returned to the senders by the Prison authorities as they exceeded his weekly quota.

It's great to have you back Joe!

No. 41 JULY 1982

GREATNESS CAN STILL BE BRITAIN'S DESTINY

THE hearts of all Britons whose minds have not been rotted by Marxist or liberal internationalism will have swelled with pride on hearing of the restoration of British sovereignty over the Falklands.

Because of foolish defence cuts by successive governments, the equipment available to Britain's Task Force was not always adequate in quantity or quality. The theatre of operations was 8,000 miles from home in a bitterly inhospitable climate. The enemy's air force, operating from land bases only 400 miles distant, was well placed to demonstrate its sophisticated weaponry. Behind-the-scenes pressure on the British government by our American 'allies' prevented the RAF from destroying the enemy air force on the ground, thus causing unnecessary losses of British lives and ships. Yet British fighting men overcame all these and other daunting problems to achieve a brilliant victory.

The Falklands conflict provided a benefit beyond the specific military victory. It enabled this generation of Britons to prove to themselves and to the World that they are made of the same metal as their forebears whose delight it was to "singe the beard of the King of Spain".

Patriots must now work to ensure that history does not record the victory in the South Atlantic as the final sputtering of a dying candle, but the rekindling of an undying blaze of British greatness.

NF News seeks to persuade its readers to feel angry about the evils of multi-racialism and to direct their anger solely at the corrupt politicians who created a racial problem in Britain, and not to the Immigrant people in general. "Racialism" is NOT unlawful – only "racial hatred".

"TORY CAPITALISM IS NOT ONLY WRONG IN ITSELF–IT HAS HAD A DESTRUCTIVE INFLUENCE ON OUR RACE AND NATION"

NF News interviews National Front Chairman Andrew Brons

Change

How has the NF changed since you became Chairman?

There are three essential characteristics of a serious political movement:

It must have a complete and easily understood ideology.

It must have a coherent strategy.

It must have the will and capacity to put its ideas into practice.

Since I became Chairman, my colleagues and I have made some progress towards attaining each of those objectives. As a result, the party has a greater sense of knowing where it is going and what it wants to do when it gets there.

Radical

The word 'radical' appears a lot in NF literature especially in connection with economic and social issues. What is meant by the word?

We mean that we regard the present structure of the economy to be fundamentally wrong in so far as it deprives most people of a sense of ownership of the concerns for which they work.

Furthermore, it encourages the accumulation of vast amounts of industrial, agricultural and commercial wealth in the hands of a small number of people, which undermines the sovereignty of the Nation.

We would encourage by differential taxation the ownership of small and medium-sized businesses, share ownership by employees and producers' co-operatives of various kinds. Equally we would discourage large accumulations of industrial, commercial and agricultural wealth.

Previous attitudes

How does the NF's radicalism differ from previous NF attitudes?

In the past we have said that our attitude to the form of ownership of industry is "pragmatic" – that is free from any guiding principle. We now substitute the principle of well-distributed property for the absence of 'principle' called pragmatism.

Indeed, our past failure to approach the problem of the structure of industry from the position of clear principle led to our tacit acceptance of Tory Capitalism, under which Big Business has dominated. That system is not only wrong in itself; it has also had a destructive influence on our race and nation.

'National Bolshevism'

Leaders of various splinter groups allege that the NF's radicalism constitutes "National Bolshevism". What is your response to this?

My immediate response is one of sheer incredulity that people who call themselves "Nationalists" should have such a shallow understanding of political ideas. But one must bear in mind that such people have a personal vested interest in spreading disinformation about the NF.

The Bolsheviks believed in the elimination of all private ownership of the 'means of production'. They wanted all property to be owned by the State. However, Capitalism, as it exists in the West today, is also destructive of private ownership for the great bulk of people. Our favoured system of well-distributed property is the exact opposite of both.

Class War

Does the NF's radicalism embrace a class-war approach to politics?

We have always made it quite clear that we accept all Britons who are true to our Nationalist principles, regardless of their social background or their present 'socio-economic' class.

However, that does not mean that we are prepared to accept an economic system which operates those divergences in interest. We reject the Marxists' class-war but we are not content to paper over the divisions.

The class-war can only be prevented by eliminating its causes and removing the system which produces it. Only our industrial policy can achieve that.

Non-Marxist

How are the NF's anti-Capitalist policies distinguished from Marxian Socialism?

I have explained how our industrial policies are the exact opposite of Marxism. It is true that unlike laissez-faire Conservatives, we recognise the need to intervene in the economy to protect British industry and British jobs from foreign competition; to prevent the nation from being robbed by a fraudulent monetary system; and to ensure the maintenance of well-distributed industrial, commercial and agricultural property. But that hardly makes us Marxian Socialists!

Incidentally, hard-line Conservatives who champion free trade as an essential article of their faith should ponder on the fact that both the Duke of Wellington and Joseph Chamberlain were, for their own and different reasons, protectionists – but neither could be described as Tory 'Wets', let alone Socialists!

We do not believe that equality of income and wealth is a desirable or even an attainable goal. Those who are willing to work hard and show initiative should be entitled to the material goods that naturally accrue. It is only when their accumulation is such that it upsets the balance of power and influence in the State, that the State must say, "Enough and no more."

Racial policies

Does the NF still maintain the paramouncy of its racial policies as it broadens its ideological base on other issues?

As important as all of our other policies are, most are capable of being implemented later if they are not implemented sooner. However, if our nation loses its distinctive racial identity, that can never be recovered.

For that reason, our racial policies are infinitely more important than all of our other policies taken together. Nevertheless, policies cannot be separated so easily. Each of our ideas is not only necessary in itself; it helps to ensure that the nation is strong enough and independent enough to safeguard its future.

NF Youth

It is said that some of the young people who associate with the NF are "spoiling the Party's image". How do you react to that?

Our image is largely created for us by our enemies in the media and not by ourselves, and we have little if any control over the image they present. The media try to present our members as predominantly young Skinheads. Anybody who looks at pictures of our meetings and even our marches will see that that is the grossest distortion.

But even if it were the case, I wouldn't judge our members by their age or hairstyle but by their worth and courage. The vast majority of our members have shown that they are infinitely more worthy and courageous than their armchair detractors.

BRITAIN BETRAYED BY EUROPEAN 'ALLIES'

WHILE Britain's soldiers were bravely fighting in the Falkland Islands our supposed 'allies' in the Common Market were busy stabbing us in the back by threatening to withhold economic sanctions against Argentina.

When the Argentinians had invaded the Falkland Islands, the countries of the Common Market had initially agreed to support Britain by imposing economic sanctions against Argentina.

However all economic sanctions take time to bite, and just six weeks later on May 17th, immediately after hostilities had begun with the sinking of the Argentinian cruiser General Belgrano, the Common Market countries announced that they would only extend sanctions for one more week.

France, West Germany and Italy publicly called for a ceasefire and at a meeting of senior diplomats all nine countries urged Britain to agree to a ceasefire.

This cynical betrayal was at a time when Britain was effectively at war fighting for the rights and freedom of the Falkland Islanders.

This threat to withdraw sanctions was being used as a political lever designed to force Britain to toe the Common Market line on two issues: firstly Britain's budget contributions, and secondly the level of European farm prices.

Britain has been subsidising the Common Market ever since our entry in 1973 and has now contributed thousands of millions of pounds. It was expected that this year Britain would make a net contribution of a staggering £910 million and this was too much for even a pro-European Conservative Government to stomach.

Foreign Secretary Francis Pym demanded a rebate of the full amount. The other nine countries refused and made it quite clear that they were going to use economic sanctions against Argentina as a bargaining counter.

On May 23rd with these negotiations over our budget contribution still continuing and the naval and air battle in the South Atlantic escalating, only eight out of the ten Common Market countries agreed to an extension of sanctions.

FRANCIS PYM

Both Italy and Southern Ireland, our supposed friends, refused to extend sanctions against the Argentinian aggressors.

On the following day the Common Market forced Britain to accept a 13% rise in European farm prices.

Britain had objected to this massive rise and believing, as we have been told for years, that there was a right to veto "proposals which affected vital national interests" (established by General de Gaulle), tried to exercise this right.

The Council of Ministers swept aside the traditional right of veto and simply imposed the price rise by majority decision.

This betrayal at such a crucial time completely puts paid to all those assurances that Britain's sovereignty was not affected by our entry to the Common Market.

It has now been made absolutely clear that Britain is no longer governed by Westminster, we are now ruled directly from Brussels.

On May 30th Francis Pym agreed to accept a new formula on Britain's budget contributions. This year he agreed that Britain would pay a minimum of £400 million for the privilege of belonging to the European nest of traitors.

Britain must learn the lesson from this record of betrayal. All the 'friends' and 'allies' in the world are no substitute for self reliance and military independence.

BRITISH JUSTICE IN SHAMBLES AS BLACKS ZAP DENNING WHILE ASIAN BOMB-MAKERS GO FREE

WHITE society is on the run. Nowhere is this more evident than in Britain's Court rooms where an incredible series of decisions have been arrived at in cases involving racial conflict.

So far this year, Courts have established:

- That members or relatives or friends of members of the National Front or other racialist groups, and relatives of Police officers, should not serve on juries in trials where Blacks are accused of race war offences.
- That objections on the part of accused National Front members to Immigrant jurymen (beyond the three objections any accused is entitled to make without reason) will not be entertained by Judges.
- That groups of accused Immigrants involved in the same trial may deploy their objections to jurymen in such a way as to achieve a majority of Immigrants on their jury.
- That Coloured men who slash to death their neighbours' wives can expect to avoid punishment if they claim that their neighbours' children have shouted "racial abuse" at them.

The latest outrage against justice was perpetrated at Leeds Crown Court in June in the trial of the 'Bradford 12' – a gang of Asians who made and stored a quantity of petrol bombs last year.

SKINHEAD 'THREAT'

The Asians' defence was that they believed that Bradford was about to be "invaded by coachloads of Skinheads" and so made the bombs in order to defend the Asian community from attack "similar to the attack on Southall by coachloads of Skinheads".

The Asians produced not a jot of evidence of any planned invasion of Bradford by Skinheads. The Police could find no evidence of any such invasion having been planned.

Lord Denning – he told the truth about multi-racialism, and so was hounded out of office.

Furthermore, the submissions concerning the "Skinhead invasion" of Southall were concoctions of hearsay and propaganda fabrications.

The Skinheads did not "invade" Southall. They turned up, unarmed, to a pub where a rock concert was to be held. They were ambushed by Asians who were armed with an arsenal of petrol bombs.

However, the deluge of propaganda had its effect, and all the Bradford Asians were acquitted. As they left the Court they bragged that they had upheld their 'right' to make and store lethal weapons "for self defence".

DENNING HOUNDED OUT

Immigrants and their White renegade supporters had another legal victory in June.

They were able to force the retirement of Britain's greatest Judge, Lord Denning, who they have long hated for his sustained defence of the individual against collectivist tyranny.

In a book published in May, What Next in the Law, he wrote:

"The English are no longer a homogeneous race. They are white and black, coloured and brown. They no longer share the same standards of conduct.

"Some of them come from countries where bribery and graft are accepted as an integral part of life and where stealing is a virtue so long as you are not found out."

He also made a reference to the trial in 1981 of a number of Black men at Bristol who were charged with offences in connection with the St. Paul's riot in 1980.

He suggested that the reason why a 'hung jury' in the trial was achieved was because the jury had been "packed" with Blacks "who would never accept the word of a Policeman against one of their own."

The Blacks who served on that jury threatened Lord Denning with a Libel action. As the chief judge in the Court of Appeal he could not become involved in such an action, and so he was forced to make a public apology and announce his retirement.

WHITES SUFFER RACIAL VIOLENCE

WOLVERHAMPTON saw a spate of racial attacks by West Indians on lone White teenagers last Autumn.

On 21st September a 16 year old White youth was walking home when he was set upon by three West Indians who beat him to the ground, then savagely kicked his head.

In another incident three days later a 19 year old White youth was attacked by a West Indian gang and slashed across his face.

A gang of West Indians in Brent, North London, were jailed at the Old Bailey for nine years in May for a series of robberies and sex attacks. All their victims were Asians.

In September four young Asians were remanded for trial charged with an attempt to murder a 19 year old White youth in Glasgow.

The Asians were said to have struck the White youth with an iron bar, bottles and whips before driving a car at him.

N.F. BLAMED

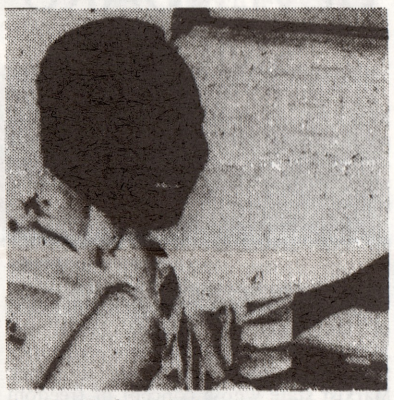
In November four Asians faced trial at the Old Bailey accused of waging a vendetta against another Asian, and of trying to blame their attacks on the National Front.

They threw a note attached to a bottle through the window of their victim's East Ham home. The note read: "Hello you Paki. We are the NF." The following day the house was firebombed.

In May a Black teenager told Bilston Magistrates that he scrawled "National Front" on the walls of homes he burgled "in order to make the Police think that White people had done it."

JACOB BUYS BRIDE FOR 80 COWS

JACOB Marial Makir is a member of the Dinka tribe from Sudan. He is a student at Leeds Polytechnic. Last year he received this message from his family:



Leeds Polytechnic student Jacob Marial Makir

"In your absence we have married you to a lovely Dinka girl. Please come home and claim your bride."

He did so, and found that the purchase price was 80 cows. Then he flew back to Britain with his bride, Yar.

ARRANGED BY T.V.

How Jacob was able to afford all this may be explained by the fact that the love-match was made a documentary by the BBC's World About Us programme.

Producer Simon Normanton reported:

"We collected Yar, who was a Nilitic girl who had seen none of the trappings of the 20th century, and put her aboard a Boeing.

"She arrived at Heathrow wearing an Afro-wig and with all of the fashion accessories of a British girl.

"Yar said that the traffic streaming along the M4 reminded her of very fast moving herds of Dinka cattle."

Jacob and Yar now have a baby called Agok.

Jacob's bride Yar with their daughter Agok

"Council won't clear my jungle"

A JUNGLE environment does not suit West Indian mother-of-three Patricia Bethel. She is waging a war to get her local Council to bring a semblance of civilisation to the back garden of her Stoke Poges Council house.

She was recently moved from a battered wives home to the house and found that the back garden was a jungle of nettles and rose bushes.

Five months pregnant, Mrs. Bethel said:

"I tried to clear the garden, but the huge brambles were too much for me. We have been trapped inside in all this hot weather."

Deputy Borough Housing Officer Mr. Robin Holden said:

"The Council gives help with gardens only if a person is disabled or elderly. A temporary condition like pregnancy is not the same."

Mrs. Patricia Bethel and her children in their jungle

We suggest that Mrs. Bethel calls in the Race Relations Board (to attend to her garden).

Bringing home the bacon for Israel

LABOUR MP Greville Janner is leading a campaign to win a Royal Pardon for the convicted arsonist and swindler Bernard Saltman, according to the Sunday Times of 6th June.

Saltman was jailed for two years after firing his furniture warehouse and filing a £160,000 insurance claim.

Janner's campaign started with a "privileged" speech in the House of Commons in which he impugned the integrity and competence of the forensic scientist Dr. Kenneth Gugan.

Sunday Times* reporters Simon Freeman and Dina Gold omitted to mention that Janner is President of the Jewish Board of Deputies and that Saltman is a generous donor to Zionist causes.

Legal wrangles have broken out over what remains of 'Sir' Charles Clore's estate in Britain.

Formerly boss of Sears Holdings, Clore transferred the bulk of his £40 million fortune out of Britain when he retired to Monaco, from where he made massive donations to Israel before he died.

'Lord' Lew Grade was given "no compensation" when he was ousted from the Associated Communications Corporation – save a £46,000 a year pension and the right to buy an ACC flat at "below its £300,000 value".

Grade is now an executive of an American-based media empire which pays him "much more" than his ACC wage of £250,000 a year.

An official report on the collapse of the Crown Agents makes special mention of William Stern, who went bankrupt for a record £100 million, but who still resides in a £500,000 house in Golders Green.

Stern's Orthodox Jewish faith prevented him from providing "normal business hospitality", so he showered Crown Agents' staff with "Christmas presents" worth up to £400 each!

South African billionaire Harry Oppenheimer wants the Blacks to take control of that country, but he is rather more dynastic when it comes to his successor as boss of his Anglo-American Corporation.

He has made arrangements to ensure that his son, Nicholas, will take control within a few years.

South African Police face an uphill battle against Zionist pressure to extradite Chaim Wainer from America. Wainer fled South Africa to escape prosecution for a massive series of property swindles.

He gained US citizenship as a result of the lobbying of the Jewish community in La Jolla, California. Wainer gained their support by building them a new synagogue from the proceeds of his crimes.

"ONE LAW FOR THE JEWS..."

"WHERE the Race Relations Act is concerned, it's a case of one law for the Jews and another law for the Gentiles!" This is the opinion of Mr. Gerry Viner, a fervent anti-Zionist – and a Jew!

Mr. Viner came to his conclusion after vain attempts to institute a Race Relations Act prosecution against the Jewish Chronicle.

His complaint – which he made in person to officers of the Police 'Community Relations' squad at Scotland Yard – related to a letter published in the JC on 29th January.

In this letter, from a Mr. D. E. Kahan, it was pointed out that Jewish religious law forbade Jewish people to mix their race with Gentiles.

Mr. Kahan said that the Jewish Community must inculcate Jewish youngsters on this point so that they will "never betray their heritage by marrying a non-Jewish spouse."

'SEPARATE SPECIES'

Quoting from authoritative Jewish texts, Mr. Kahan asserted that the Jewish people are "not ordinary human beings who happen to practise the Jewish religion, but a separate species of mankind."

He continued:

"In the case of Israel, who are holy, this zelem (form) is holy and from a holy place, but for the heathens it comes from the 'evil species', from the side on uncleanness. Therefore a man should not mix his form with that of a heathen because one is holy and the other unclean."

Note the insulting distinction between "a man" (a Jew) and a "heathen".

To date none of the assertions made by Mr. Kahan have been re-interpreted, let alone contradicted, by any Rabbinical authorities or by "anti-racist" campaigners like Dr. Jacob Gewirtz, Head of the Jewish Board of Deputies' Defence and Group Relations Committee.

The Police took a statement from Mr. Viner and, in due course, he was notified that the Director of Public Prosecutions did not intend to proceed with a Race Relations Act prosecution.

JERRY VINER – fervent anti-Zionist

How many extra months in prison would Joe Pearce have been given at the end of his Race Act trial had he published in Bulldog:

"White Gentile people must not mate with Jews or Coloured Immigrants because White Gentiles are holy and clean while Jews and Coloureds are an unclean and separate species of mankind, and perhaps not even deserving of the name 'Man'."

Mr. Viner told NF News:

"I find it shocking that while Zionist Jewry was mainly responsible for getting the Race Act on the statute book as a means of suppressing White Gentile opposition to race-mixing, Jews are able to institutionalise their own racialism behind a smokescreen of religion."

We ask NF News readers to write to their MP's about this case. We would be interested to see any replies they may receive.

White Brixton rioter "stood out"

AT LONG last the media campaign to depict the rioters in last year's Brixton riots as being "Black and White youths" has been exposed.

The truth emerged during the Old Bailey trial in February of Southwark Council social worker Adrian Kenny.

Kenny was jailed for three years after being convicted of throwing two petrol bombs at the Police.

Prosecuting Counsel Mr. Nicholas Purnell told the jury that the Police had no difficulty in identifying Kenny as he was "one of only a handful of Whites actively involved in the disturbances."

It was clearly dishonest for the media to use the presence of "a handful of Whites" among the hundreds of Blacks as a basis for stating that the mobs were "multi-racial".

JOE HOLDS NF PERCENTAGE IN MITCHAM AND MORDEN POLL

AS A result of the fighting in the South Atlantic many voters in Mitcham and Morden on 3rd June believed that the only way to show support for our armed forces was to vote Conservative.

Despite this special factor a hard fought campaign, which included a five mile march across the Constituency by hundreds of campaign workers, enabled Joe Pearce to hold on to the NF's General Election share of the vote while the Labour vote slumped from over 13,000 to just 4,000, and the Social Democrats bandwaggon was stopped dead in its tracks.

Joe won 547 votes – 1.8 per cent of the poll – only 0.2 per cent lower than the NF's General Election percentage.

The National Front campaign started the day Joe Pearce signed his nomination papers on leaving Chelmsford Prison after serving four months of his sentence for offences against the notorious Race Relations Act.

Joe Pearce at his adoption meeting

His formal adoption took place at a crowded meeting in Morden on Tuesday, 18th May. This raised £514 for the campaign.

His candidature was enthusiastically endorsed by his Election Agent, local Organiser John Perryman, who had previously fought the seat for the National Front.

Joe promised the audience a hectic and lively campaign and he was true to his word.

In addition to the 30,000 election addresses which were delivered to every house in the Constituency a further 20,000 election leaflets were delivered door-to-door.

On the 28th May, the Saturday prior to polling day, hundreds of National Front members gathered near Morden Station for a march in sweltering weather through the most densely populated area of the Constituency.

Joe's enthusiastic adoption meeting audience

'THUMBS-UP' SIGNS

Along the route of the march the occasional shout of abuse from a 'counter-demonstration' of 5 Reds was heavily outweighed by the waves and 'thumbs-up' signs the marchers received from onlookers, some of whom displayed 'Vote Joe Pearce' posters in their windows.

At the end of the route the marchers joined members of the public in a public meeting in the Tamworth Manor High School, where speakers included South London Regional Organiser Michael Salt; NF National Activities Organiser Martin Webster; NF Deputy-Chairman Ian Anderson; and NF Chairman Andrew Brons.

The continuous loudspeakering which was carried out over the last two weeks of the campaign also substantially contributed to the 547 votes which were gained by Joe Pearce who came fourth, well ahead of his nearest challenger.

Two pretty 'minders' were with Joe at the head of the march

BOMB! BOMB! BOMB BUENOS AIRES!

ON Sunday, 9th May two local impromptu National Front marches attempted to converge on Downing Street demanding "No Sell Out in the Falklands."

About one hundred marchers assembled at Brick Lane in East London and marched through Shoreditch and Holborn to the Strand.

Another hundred formed up near East Street in South London, marched across the River Thames to the Embankment.

On reaching central London the marchers were prevented from going on to Downing Street by the Police.

The march from East London held a rally near the Strand, while the marchers from South London rallied near the Temple.

After these two street meetings the marchers dispersed but were harrassed by police from the Special Patrol Group. One NF member was stopped and searched on four separate occasions.

DAVID RILEY FIGHTS ON

DAVID RILEY, Chairman of Accrington NF Branch, appears at Manchester Crown Court on 5th July to face a civil action brought by the Commission for Racial Equality for publishing leaflets "likely to incite racial discrimination".

Yet David has already been given four concurrent six month jail sentences, suspended for two years plus costs of £857 on Race Act charges involving the same leaflets. Far from being cowed by this double persecution David Riley continues his fight.

A local newspaper, produced by David, the East Lancashire NF News, appeared for the first time in June. It announced a major meeting in Blackburn and a Rock Against Communism concert.

The paper slams the Bishop of Blackburn for warning of "the evils of patriotism" over the Falklands crisis and criticises Hyndburn Council for giving £250,000 to an Asian Welfare Organisation.

Plans are also announced for a demonstration outside the Court when David is due to appear.

David's stand has gained substantial publicity and has won for the National Front both respect and support. Please help David to continue his fight.

Contributions to the 'David Riley Defence Fund' should be made out to the 'Accrington National Front Branch' and sent to 4 Lodge Street, Accrington, Lancashire.

ROCHDALE 'STINK'

A NUMBER of stink bombs were set off during a meeting of Rochdale Council on Wednesday, 21st April. The Council were debating proposals to teach both the Islamic religion and Asian languages as part of the normal curriculum in local schools.

Before the meeting about twenty National Front members had handed out leaflets urging the Councillors to reject the proposals, and as the debate started the NF members watched from the public gallery.

When it became clear that the Council was going to overwhelmingly accept the proposals, a number of stink bombs were set off.

The police were summoned but were unable to identify the perpetrators of this act and no arrests were made.

SEVENOAKS 'SMOKE'

ROBERT ZVINOIRA; the High Commissioner for the Black Marxist State of Zimbabwe, was forced to leave a meeting at Sevenoaks School in Kent after a smoke bomb was thrown at him.

The meeting, on 26th April, organised by the 'Sevenoaks-Gwelo Committee', was to "forge closer links" with the terrorist regime of Robert Mugabe.

Early on Mr. Geoff Burnett, Chairman of Sevenoaks NF Branch, asked Mr. Jackson (the local Conservative MP) why Sevenoaks was supporting a Black Marxist state whose concept of freedom included banning all opposition.

Unable to give a clear reply Mr. Jackson was heckled by other members of the audience.

As Mr. Zvinoira began his speech a smoke bomb was hurled through a window causing the meeting to end in confusion.

Carlisle Red

WHY does this Red look so unhappy? Because as Malcolm Duthie was walking to Carel Cross in Carlisle for a silent vigil to mark the death of IRA terrorist Bobby Sands he had to run a gauntlet of local NF members.

Victor Connett and other members, carrying Union Flags, were joined by an angry crowd of shoppers in singing Rule Britannia.

Malcolm Duthie had intended to wear the dark glasses and black beret uniform of the IRA but had been advised against this.

The Tyndall Factor

John Tyndall, who currently heads an organisation called the British National Party (Mk. 5) – formerly the NNF – claims that the NF cannot hope for electoral success without his personal "leadership". Would he then explain how Ron Rickcord, his only local election candidate, received just NINE votes – especially since ten Milton Keynes people must have signed his nomination paper?
